

Even if you haven't got any symptoms, regular screening for sexually transmitted infections (STIs) is a great way to look after your sexual health.

For more information visit:

sexualhealth.cht.nhs.uk