

The ‘Reducing inequalities in Sexual Health’ (RiiSH) 2025 survey, an online survey examining the sexual health and wellbeing of gay, bisexual and other men who have sex with men (GBMSM) in the UK is open for participation through December 9th 2025.

Findings from RiiSH surveys have been used to inform sexual service access and use and STI/HIV intervention uptake. This short video describes how we have used information from the RiiSH surveys to help plan better sexual health services.

Those eligible to participate in RiiSH include:

Men (cisgender or transgender), transgender women, non-binary or gender-diverse people assigned male at birth reporting the following:

- Having had sex with men and/or other people registered male at birth
- Aged 16 or older
- Living in the UK
